

How to Pack Gift Items

Now that you know how easy it is to pack your family for your trip - what do you do about all of the gifts you need to bring when visiting out-of-town friends and relatives during the holidays? Make sure to check with the Transportation Security Administration (TSA). They have specific guidelines regarding what you can and can't bring through the checkpoint.

Most importantly the TSA reminds travelers not to wrap gifts you are taking on the plane. Security officers may have to unwrap gifts if they need to take a closer look. But - who wants to wrap gifts once they arrive at their destination?

Gift cards are the perfect solution! They take very little room in your bag, you do not need to wrap them and they are always the perfect items for everyone on your gift-giving list.

Not sure what type of gift card to get? An Amazon gift card will allow recipients to buy virtually any possible item they could want. Amazon will even allow you to have the gift card e-mailed to the recipient on the day of your choice. So - you can plan to have the gift card arrive while you are visiting!
